LILIUM HARRISII

TWO SPECIAL OFFERS FOR FALL, 1907

LILIUM HARRISII BERMUDA EASTER LILY.

Every florist is aware that this is the only rapidly forcing Lily for Christmas. For many years we have tried to secure as near as possible the true Liliium Harrisii, and we believe have at last succeeded in locating the VERY BEST grown in Bermuda.

The stock is carefully rogued out and we put it on the market with the assurance that our friends will be well repaid in growing the same.

We advocate AUGUST delivery, as we have found, from long experience, that the bulbs delivered in July invariably are dug too early, and not thoroughly ripened, which will produce poor growing qualities and crippled stock.

bring the Calla bulbs from California to the Eastern States. Our stock is free from disease, well cured, every bulb having a fine, well developed center shoot. The demand for Calla bulbs has increased so much in the last few years that larger sizes, especially those above six inches circumference, are invariably short in the market, and we urge our customers to send in early orders.

Liliums

Delivery from October-November.

Japan Lilium Longiflorum

Every florist knows that it pays to grow this Lily at all times of the year. After the early deliveries are made we have a stock of cold storage bulbs which we furnish on demand as long as stock lasts. Prices for cold storage stock are higher, the cost of storage being added. We ask our customers to remember that the firm of H. H. Berger & Co. were the first who imported the Japan Lilium Longiflorum from Japan, thirty years ago. The stock we furnish today is as good and reliable, as it has been through all those years.

Well matured clean sound bulbs. Case lots go at 1000 price. Note our offer for Western shipping on a front page.

Ordinary Lilium Longiflorum.

This is the sort with broader foliage and is somewhat slower in blooming than the Lilium Longiflorum Multiflorum. It is quite as desirable where early blooming is of no material consequence.

This new spiræa, which was first flowered in this country for Easter, 1907, is of the same habit as the universally admired Spiræa Gladstone, with the exception that the color of Queen Alexandra is of the most exquisite rose pink, resembling that of the rose Bridesmaid. It also blooms two weeks earlier than Gladstone, comes in well for Easter, and is undoubtedly the greatest acquisition in the spiræas. This spiræa has been

Novelties in Pansies

AUREOLA. The lower three petals of this exquisite novelty are of a purplish rose shade, each petal marked with a dark blotch. In a beautiful contrast the two upper petals of the flower are of a light whitish cream to yellow color. The upper petals are moreover margined by a broad carmine red border, arranged like an Aureole. Nothing in the Pansy line can be compared with this distinct novelty. Pkt. 25c.

MAUVE QUEEN. A new and distinct shade in Pansies. The most delicate Mauve color. Each of the lower three petals is marked with a large blotch of clear carmine color with a hue of delicate lilac. The margin of the petals is finely cut or fringed. Pkt. 25c.

SIEGFRIED. A great improvement on "Masterpiece." This Pansy is Giant Flowered, of an intense red color with a darker blotch. Each petal is edged with a bright yellow, making this a veritable combination of fire. Pkt. 25c.
